

2017 – APRIL
GENERAL CONFERENCE JEOPARDY

WHAT IS THE SUBJECT?

- 100 Elder Brough quoted the words to a song that he thought was just to be advice for parents but realized it had far greater meaning to everyone. Name the song and phrase that he used for the subject of his talk. I am a child of God: lead me, guide me, walk beside me, help me find the way.
- 200 The subject of Pres. Uchtdorf's talk was about fear. He quoted a scripture that he said was the anecdote for fear. Find and read 1 John 4:18 to tell us the anecdote.
- 300 Elder Palmer told the story that as a mission president in the Spokane, Washing mission one day while driving through wheat fields, he listened in the car to the familiar account of rich young man coming to the Savior. He received a profound personal revelation that is now a sacred memory. He listened for the Savior's gentle correction to sell what thou hast and follow me. He heard six words before that as if for the first time. He marveled at an inspired understanding. What were the six words from Mark 10? Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him.
- 400 Elder Oaks quoted Paul in 2 Corinthians 13:14. Find that and tell us what was the subject of his talk.
- 500 What church Hymn did Elder Holland use for the subject of his talk? There is Sunshine in my Soul today.

WORDS OF OUR FIRST PRESIDENCY

- 100 Pres. Eyring said this is the work of our generation. What was he talking about? Gathering our families through family history.
- 200 Pres. Uchtdorf spoke about fear. He said that Fear can have a powerful influence over our actions but it tends to be temporary and shallow. It rarely has the power to change our hearts. Some people use fear to manipulate and control. He said that is not how Heavenly Father works. He quoted the gifts of the spirit from Heavenly Father found in Galatians 5:22. Find and read that scripture.
- 300 What did President Monson tell us to do? (He said it twice!) If you are not reading the book of Mormon each day, please do so. Prayerfully study and ponder the book of Mormon each day. Teacher comment: He said The importance of a testimony of book of Mormon cannot be overstated.
- 400 President Monson spoke briefly about testimony and told us to do that which is necessary to obtain one. He told us it is essential for us to have our own testimony. A testimony needs to be kept vital and alive. Name one thing he said we can do to keep our testimonies alive. Obedience to the commandments of God and daily prayer and scripture study.
- 500 Name one of the five new temples Pres. Monson announced. Brasilia, Brazil; Manila, Philippines; Nairobi, Kenya; Pocatello, Idaho; and Sarasota Springs, Utah.

IT'S IN THE SCRIPTURES

- 100 Elder Clayton told the story of the Wedding in Cana. He said that they ran out of wine and Mary asked for Christ's help. She told the servants, "Whatsoever he sayeth unto you do it." They followed his instructions and the governor of the feast was surprised that the best wine was served last. Elder Clayton told us to remember this miracle but taught us another important message from it. What additional insights did he teach us? Mary was a precious and chosen vessel called by God to give birth to the Son of God. She knew more about him than anyone else on earth. She knew the truth of his miraculous birth. Mary knew of his capacity to solve problems, including this personal one. She had unshakable confidence in him and his divine power. Her instructions to the servants are the same to us – whatsoever he sayeth unto you, do it!
- 200 Elder Anderson spoke about overcoming the world. He said: True disciples of Jesus Christ are willing to stand out, speak up and be different from people of the world. He reminded us of this scripture found in John 15:18. Find and read that scripture.
- 300 Elder Ballard said that Heavenly Father's goal is found in Moses 1:39. His plan is salvation. Find and read his goal.
TEACHER'S NOTE: At the end of his goal he said again, This is their goal. They have a perfect love for us. More powerful than we can comprehend. We are their work, our glory is their glory. More than anything else, they want us to come home and receive eternal happiness in their presence.
- 400 Elder Cook spoke on having a foundation of faith! He told the story from Luke 8 of the woman with issue of blood 12 years. She had such a foundation of faith that she thought if she could but touch the border of the Savior's garment she would be healed. The Savior said, Who touched me? I perceive that virtue has gone out of me. Elder Cook said the root word for virtue is power. The Savior did not see her, he had not focused on her need, but her faith was such that touching the boarder of his garment drew on the healing power of the Son of God. Then he answered the question What does faith accomplish? Name one of the things he said: Sins are forgiven. Salvations comes through faith in Christ's name. Strength according to faith in Christ. Prayers are answered. Without faith, God can do no miracle. Our faith in Jesus Christ is the essential foundation for eternal foundation and exaltation.
- 500 Elder Christofferson said the question, "Who is my neighbor?" is tied to the two great commandment: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. What parable followed to answer "who is thy neighbor?" found in Luke 10? (Good Samaritan).

WHAT SHOULD WE DO?

- 100 Elder Grow asked the question: How you can come to know God? He gave us three answers. Name one: Pray in faith. Study the scriptures. Do God's will.
- 200 Pres. Nelson asked YSA to consecrate a portion of their study to study everything Jesus did in the scriptures. He told them to look at citations in the topical guide. He gave that challenge and accepted it himself. He said he read and underlined every verse as listed under 57 subtopics in that guide. His wife asked him What impact it had on him? He said, I am a different man. I felt a renewed devotion to Him as I read the Savior's statement. Find and read 3 Nephi 27:13-14 which was the statement that had impact on him!
- 300 Elder Holland spoke about Sunshine in our souls but said some days are difficult, days when faith and fortitude are tested. Whatever the reasons, we find they can rob us of songs we so much want to sing and darken the promise of springtime in the souls. On those days, he said to embrace Paul's counsel in Romans 8:25. Find and read that scripture.
- 400 Elder Renland said that a repenting sinner draws closer to God than a self-righteous person who condemns the sinner. He used the story in Luke 18:10-14. Find and read that scripture. He went on to say: We must not be guilty of persecuting anyone inside or outside the church!

500 Elder Clayton said that doing the little daily habits of faith right is the single best way to fortify the troubles of life, whatever they may be. Name a daily habit of faith that will fortify us. Reading the book of Mormon daily, paying tithing, serving, prayer and others!

STORY TOLD!

100 Elder Cordon said that after he was called as a General Authority, his family moved to the US and were around many cultural backgrounds. He said when you move to a different county, many of the first generation speak Spanish. The second generation speak very good English and some broken Spanish. By third generation, the native language is lost. This is called language loss. Then he talked about another language that was the subject of his talk. What language did he talk about? Eternal language – spoken by the words of the Holy Prophets.

200 Elder Nelson told of a fearless young laurel who was to participate in statewide competition the same time she had agreed to participate in a Relief Society meeting. She was told she would be disqualified if she left early from the competition. What did she do? She kept her commitment to participate in the Relief Society meeting as promised. She was disqualified from the statewide competition. She said later, the church is more important isn't it?

300 Elder Anderson told the story of David O. McKay traveling to Samoa. He dreamed about a beautiful white city, with trees full of fruit that were abundant everywhere. Everyone wore white flowing robes. His attention centered upon their leader. He recognized him as The Savior. The radiance was glorious. The peace was divine. The city was His, the City Eternal and the people following him were to abide in peace and eternal happiness. Elder McKay wondered: Who are they? Who are these people? The Savior answered him by pointing to words that appeared above the people written in gold: these are they who have overcome the world, who have been born again. Then he quoted Revelation 3:5. Find and read that scripture.

400 Elder Sabin told the story of a scout camping trip when the boys slept out and he slept in back of his truck. In the morning he saw Paul. Tell the story of Paul. Paul slept not very well. He said he was cold when the fire went out. I said fires do that, but wasn't his sleeping bag warm enough?. He said he didn't use the sleeping bag. He thought if he didn't unroll his sleeping bag, he wouldn't have to roll it up again in the morning. He stayed cold five hours so he didn't have to work for five minutes!

TEACHER'S NOTE: He was speaking about being all in, fully committed.

500 Elder Sabin spoke on being fully committed. He quoted Doctrine and Covenants 35:24 on the blessings of being committed to God. Find and read this scripture.

DOUBLE JEOPARDY

FUNNY THING!

- 200 Elder Choi said he served as a mission president in Seattle Washington mission where it rained frequently. He had missionaries to go out in the rain, and told them to open your mouth, drink the rain. When look up, you will be strengthened to open your mouth. What did he tell us to be careful of if we tried this that got a laugh? Don't try this in polluted areas.
- 400 Pres. Eyring told the story of a man who works for one of the largest computer companies in the world. His company had sent him to sell computers to the church. This salesman had no religious faith, yet he saw with wonder, that in this church, we were doing what they called genealogy, searching for people who were dead. He saw people, especially older women who were running around between filing cabinets searching for information. The women were wearing tennis shoes so run a little faster! Pres. Eyring said that through revelation, they did not buy his computers but waited for technology that at that time was not imagined better ones to come out. What did he say cannot be a substitute for revelation? Technology.
- 600 Elder Sabin said that his 97 year old father just died. When he was asked how doing he would say that on scale of 1-10 he was a 25. At age 90, he asked him if he wanted to use a wheelchair at the airport. He replied, "no maybe when I get old. If I get tired of walking, maybe I can run." He said was always standing up inside. What did he mean when he told us to standing up in his talk? Stand up inside when we defend truth, help hands that hang down. Stand up inside in spite of difficulties is a clear conscious.
- 800 Pres. Uchtdorf told the story of when he was a Stake President in Germany. Tell the story that got a laugh! A dear unhappy sister said isn't it terrible, there must have been 4-5 people sound asleep during his talk. He answered, I'm pretty sure that church sleep is among the healthiest of all sleeps. His wife, Harriett, overhead and later mentioned it one of the nicest answers I had ever given.
- 1000 Elder Costa spoke of his conversion and baptism. He asked the question: Why would a person without challenges or needs be interested in meeting the missionaries? What was his answer that got a laugh? My reason was love for a girl. She had different standards. I asked her to marry me and she said no. I thought I was quite a catch. Handsome, 24 years old, college grad with good job. She spoke of goals of an eternal family. That is why I listened to the missionaries.

WHAT DID HE SAY?

- 200 Elder Rasband said that we must always act on the first prompting we get from the Holy Ghost. He admonished us to not to second or third guess our feelings. When we do we are dismissing divine counsel. Then he said we should be what? Be a first responder.
- 400 Elder Renland shared the story of the woman who was caught in adultery. After her accusers left, he told the woman to "Go and sin no more." Find and read the JST of John 8:11 that adds insight to that verse.
- 600 Elder Ballard said that knowing where you are going and how you expect to get their brings meaning and purpose in your life. Then he taught us the difference between a goal and a plan. What is the difference? A goal is a destination or an end, a plan is the route by which you get there.
- 800 Elder Hales said that in the Savior's day, many claimed to be righteous, but had selective obedience. Give an example from the New Testament of someone with selective obedience. A couple Elder Hales spoke of include: Not working on the Sabbath but criticized the Savior for healing on the holy day. They fasted but had long faces.
- 1000 Elder Cook told us the object of General Conference. What did he say? The objective of general conference is to build faith in God the Father and our Savior, Jesus Christ .
